

AMBIENT WHOLE BLOOD PTT TESTING

TriCore Reference Laboratories follows a standardized protocol for all TriCore sites in relation to coagulation testing.

Ambient whole blood PTT samples must be tested within 4 hours of collection. Samples received outside of a 4-hour time frame will not be processed because the specimen is considered past stability. A credit will be issued.

Thank you for choosing TriCore.